LIQUOR APPEAL

Of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company is Allowed by State Supreme Court.

CHARLESTON, March 21.—Besides handing down seven opinions the supreme court today allowed an appeal asked for by the Baltimore and Ohio railway company against the state relating to carrying more than two quarts of liquor in to West Virginia.

The case came up from Mineral county. Captain B. Avis, representing the Republican committee of Kanawha county, asked the court for an alternative writ of mandamus to compel the Kanawha county court to appoint the list of registrars presented by Chairman S. H. Smith. When the court considered the question heretofore one member voted for, one against Chairman Smith's list and one member was absent.

Coffee Facts

Read what the 19th edition United States Dispensatory (page 253), the guiding authority for chemists, druggists, and physicians, says about the drug, caffeine, of which there is about 2½ grains in the average cup of coffee:

"Give in large dose to the lower animals, caffeine produces hurried respiration, restlessness, slightly lowered, followed by a markedly elevated temperature, tetanic and clonic convulsions, progressive paralysis, and finally death from paralytic arrest of respiration."

Although man is stronger and more resistant, it is a well-known scientific fact that caffeine, in coffee, is a frequent cause of headache, nervousness, biliousness, heart flutter and many other ills.

Not at one large dose, but by little doses repeated regularly does this subtle, habit-forming drug get in its work, and, sooner or later, many coffee drinkers suffer.

Before that time comes, suppose you make a personal test—quit coffee ten days and use

POSTUM

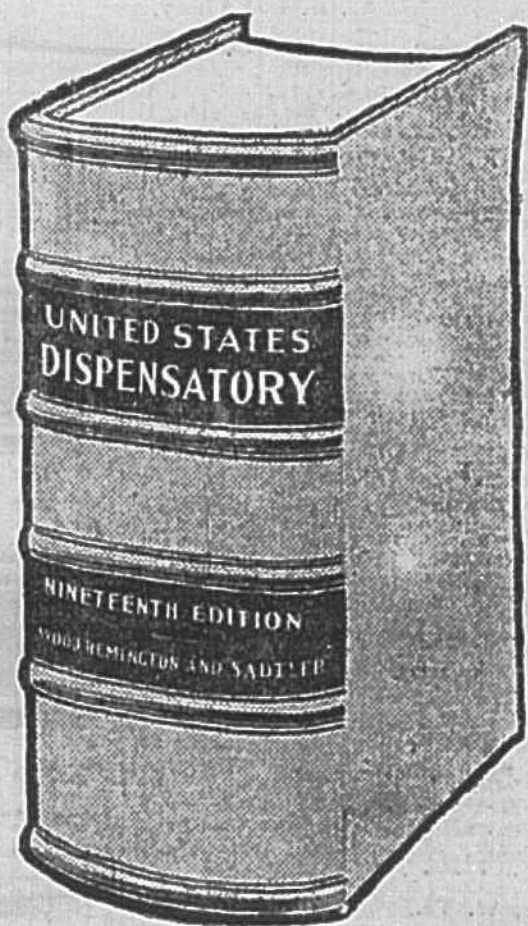

Made of wheat and a little wholesome molasses, this famous pure food-drink has a rich, snappy flavour much like that of mild, high-grade coffee, and it contains no drug or other harmful element.

There are two forms of Postum. The original Postum Cereal must be boiled; Instant Postum is the original Postum reduced to soluble form; a level teaspoonful in a cup with boiling water makes a perfect cup instantly. Both forms are equally delicious, and the cost per cup is about the same.

The change from coffee to Postum is pleasant as well as highly beneficial, and with the better health that comes with freedom from caffeine, the drug in coffee, you'll know

"There's a Reason"

Grocers everywhere sell Postum.

SEVEN WINKS

Cost Man Fine of $50 in a Police Court in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 21.—George Stamatois, 26 years old, No. 510 Main street, has not forgotten the customs of his native Greece. There it seems to be the fashion to wink at any woman you to become acquainted with. The Greek custom brought Stamatois to grief in staid Kansas City.

Stamatois entered a department store the other afternoon. He winked at six pretty girls to no avail. He winked at the seventh, who promptly seized him by the arm, showed him a store detective's star and escorted him to a crossing patrolman.

Stamatois answered a charge of "mashing" before Justice Charles Clark, acting judge in the North Side court here, soon after.

"That winking trick is a favorite over in Greece, Judge," Stamatois said. "That's the way we meet all our nice women. I thought it was all right here, too. I've got to show my appreciation of the girls some way."

"That's a poor way," Judge Clark answered. "The wink is not favored in Kansas City. You are fined $50."

involved in any factional fights; his mental attainments and moral strength are universally recognized and every element of the party could unite upon him as their common choice, feeling that with him as their standard bearer the Grand Old Party would march fourth next November to the most decisive victory of its history in this state.

Reports keep coming into Charleston from every section of the state indicating that the demand for Judge Robinson's nomination is universal, coming not only from every element of his own party, but from the ranks of others. Bankers, business men, commercial travelers, farmers, miners, railroadmen and all union labor men are outspoken in their preference for him.

The laboring man knows that in Judge Robinson he has a loyal friend and the financier knows him for a safe, sane, conscientious statesman, with a broad vision and comprehensive grasp of the business as well as the humanitarian needs of the state. He recognized that he could not control him in the sense that he could induce him to anything contrary to his better judgment or to the dictates of his conscience, but appreciates his uncompromising fairness which would insure him as well as his employee and the ultimate consumer against aggression or demagoguery. Judge Robinson is conceded by people in all walks of life to be the most nearly ideal candidate ever offered by any party for any office in West Virginia and it is predicted that the campaign will develop into the greatest landslide the state has ever known. Political observers say the will gain momentum every day from now until the day of election.
